Banff Springs Hotel and Bow Valley. Banff, the famous pleasure resort of the Canadian Rockies, enjoys a magnificent situation. Picturesque valleys radiate from it and snow-capped mountains are on every side, affording a delightful contrast. The Canadian Pacific Hotel stands at almost the point of angle that the Bow River makes around the foot of Mount Rundle, and the Cascade River comes down from the north by the side of the Cascade Mountain, forming one of the most beautiful spots of the National Park, in whose vast area it is included.
